

Biography

Anita Fickensberger

Anita Fickensberger brings a diverse set of skills to Hub City Opera. She is an art consultant at CSM Art and Frame, where she manages art design for healthcare and other corporations. As an art consultant, she develops relationships with artists and publishers to provide novel artwork options for clients, as she designed the space and concepts for the selection and placement of art.

Her background includes event management where she created and assisted in producing events for upwards to 300 hundred people. She also has extensive sales and marketing expertise along with strong project management background skills. As a sales director for Shackamaxon Country Club, she negotiated proposals and contracts as well as supervising staff and overseeing events. She has also been the President of the Summit Toastmasters of NJ.