

Biography

Poldi Binder

Poldi is the owner of German For You, a tutoring and coaching service in German language and culture. A former Rutgers faculty member, she holds an M.A. in American Literature and European History from Salzburg University and an M.Ed. in Language Education from Rutgers University.

She currently sings with, and is a board member of, Cantabile Chamber Chorale in Piscataway. She has also sung with Christ Church Parish Choir in New Brunswick, NJ and performed with various small amateur recorder ensembles. She is particularly interested in bringing new and innovative musical productions to New Brunswick as well as reaching out to young people in an effort to involve them in such ventures. She loves opera and is excited to be part of Hub City Opera and Dance Company.