

Biography

Rachel Resnik

Rachel has a Bachelor of Arts in History and Theater from McGill University in Montreal Canada where she also participated in Opera Studies at the McGill Music School. She is an actress, playwright, scriptwriter, producer and art coordinator, who also specializes as a professional clown. She is a member of IATSE Local 829 and the Screen Actors Guild (SAG). Her acting/producing has also taken her on 3 touring shows (Popped Out, Grown Ass Woman and In Denial) that went to International Festivals in the U.S., Europe and Australia.

As an art coordinator, Rachel has managed the office for the Art Department on a variety of major films and TV series as well as managing schedules and purchasing materials for productions. She has also been a production manager in New York City for NYC Clown Gym.

Rachel is also a teacher and coach, and is a resident clown teacher and the NYC Clown Gym, where she is also the production manager.